2. The briefers discussed the political/military/economic situation in each country. The Committee staffers were particularly interested in dissident activities, including sources of external support and the extent of popular support for the dissidents. Also discussed were drought conditions, relations with South Africa, and the outlook for Prime Minister Mugabe and President Nyerere. The Committee staffers expressed appreciation for the 2-hour briefing and indicated they would seek further updates as the situation warrants. [redacted]
